Message from Ms Nancy Lee Principal

I am delighted to report that our school continued to achieve astounding results in the HKDSE Examination 2021. Twenty-one S6 students gained admission to the University of Hong Kong (33.9%) and the rest were admitted to other local universities (46.1%) and overseas universities (20%).

Our top student this year, Selva Sathish Achudha Bala, scored 5 in English, Mathematics, Chemistry and Physics; Grade A in French; 5* in M2; 4 in Liberal Studies; and level 9 in GCSE Chinese. She was offered direct admission to the University of Cambridge on the four-year full-time master degree on Chemical Engineering (2021/22 – 2024/25). Moreover, she has recently been awarded the Hong Kong Scholarship for Excellence Scheme 2021/22, which amounts to a total of HK$300,000 per annum for her tuition fees at Cambridge as well as other living and study-related expenses during her studies in the UK.

The fact that our students have continuously done so well in the HKDSE speaks loud and clear that our school is:

1. an indisputable Band One school;
2. an elite school adequately preparing high-calibre students for top local and overseas universities.

In this issue of newsletter, readers will also see how our students shine and fly in non-academic domains.

Our school is grateful to our dedicated teachers and students, and to our parents for their support and collaboration. They have helped to keep our culture vibrant over the past years. I am sure that together we will continue to strive for excellence and equip our students for rising to all challenges in the global community.

"This time last year I was in the middle of the university application frenzy. Little did I know that almost exactly one year later, I would move to a completely new country to study in one of the world's highest-ranked universities. Cambridge has always been an intimidating idea to me – uprooting my life to learn from experts in their fields was one of the most challenging decisions (academically and financially) I've ever made. Getting funding from the HKSES enabled me to pursue my aspirations to gain knowledge and experience in my field. Also, I am immensely thankful for my teachers and parents who have supported my growth from a shy kid to an inquisitive young adult.

To my fellow schoolmates I would say: Love your subject. Love working with it and love learning about it. That will be your motivation."

Amazing News from Burg Alexander Y.L., our through-train graduate, 1st Class Honours in a double degree in BBA (Law) and LLB from the University of Hong Kong

Burg Alexander, Yuk Lung, graduate of 2016, has just graduated with a double degree in Bachelor of Business Administration (Law) and Bachelor of Law from the University of Hong Kong with 1st Class Honours and he wants to express his heartfelt thanks to our teachers for nurturing him and inspiring him to study law at university. He is now heading for the PCLL. Gaining admission to HKU Law degree is already something but attaining 1st Class Honours in Law is elevating himself to the top of a class of elites!

This is the success story of a boy from yesterday's through-train student at St. Margaret's to today's rising barrister-at-law. During his twelve years at St. Margaret's, Burg has proved himself to be a truly all-round student. He not only excelled in academic pursuits but also shone as a promising sport star, especially in athletics. Our Principal Ms Nancy Lee likes to recall the sweet moment of interviewing this cute, smart kid applying for admission to primary one sixteen years ago.

Words from our Graduates

Chan Hei Man Winson (2019-2020)

"Go out. Hang out with people."

Trust me, you won't regret it.

University education is one of the few stages in life that allows you to meet a lot of different people with different backgrounds. Yes, GPA is important, quartiles are important, but do what you need to do to get the most out of your time at university.

I have met friends and mentor figures, and they all imparted me with crucial life lessons.

It's no longer high school when you finish the DSE and go to university. Get out there and make some new friends.

Kwok Chi Chai Anson (2019-2020)

Looking back on my time as a 2020 DSE candidate, it was a rocky yet memorable journey. A lot of self-discipline had to be exercised especially when we could not go to school and study with friends. After months of being deluged with past papers and books, I finally made it to HKU. I began my new chapter by involving myself in various student societies, exploring new interests that I had always wanted to try, and picking up hobbies that I stopped practicing when I was preparing for the public exam. The first year of university went by in a blur and I am very grateful to have met a great bunch of friends that I could overcome many encumbrances with. University to me is more than just a place to hone my academic ability; it serves as a self-discovery journey where I get to know myself better in every opportunity I take, every success I achieve and every mistake I make. I hope you will all get into your desired universities, make the most out of it and enjoy it as much as I do!

Ng Man Yan Venus (2019-2020)

My school life at The Chinese University of Hong Kong has been hectic but fruitful so far. After a year of online lessons, we are finally returning to the campus to have lectures and dissection sessions.

Cadaveric dissection is certainly a precious and meaningful experience to us medical students. The "silent teachers" have taught us a lot of knowledge which we could not learn from textbooks. I would say that they are the most important teachers we will never forget.

Unquestionably, we are very thankful for the donors, who were willing to sacrifice themselves even though they did not know any of us. We definitely cherish the opportunity and make sure it is meaningful.

Studying medicine has always been my dream but I never thought that I would be able to study medicine at university until the day when the DSE results were released. Although the journey was tough, I was glad to have met groups of supportive teachers and friends, which made my school life less stressful. I hope you can all persevere and overcome the obstacles in life and reach your goal!

Despite a full year of online and hybrid learning, my university life so far has been wonderful! I've met some nice people, been exposed to many interesting courses, and joined different kinds of activities. Besides, the campus environment of CUHK is really beautiful. I am very glad that we are able to resume lessons on campus this year.

For all of you who are preparing for the DSE, I know how challenging and stressful it is, but remember to believe in yourself and don't give up. With the hard work you've put in and your determination, I'm sure you will achieve your goals and get into your dream university. Wish you all good luck!

Hong Dylan Carswell (2019-2020)

Upon graduating from SMCESPS, I have embarked on a whole new journey of university life with excitement and expectations. I developed my interest in the medical field in S4, especially in physiotherapy due to my background of being an athlete. I was therefore thrilled when I received an offer to pursue a degree in physiotherapy. Being in university is a lot more different from secondary. No one is here to remind me about deadlines which has actually made me more independent. With more free time, I have spent more time on developing new hobbies and interests. One thing that I miss about secondary school is the bond that I had with everyone in the form. Although we are all studying at different universities now, the memories that we share in the past 12 years will not be forgotten.

At university, I am constantly stepping out of my comfort zone as I really want to make some changes as I enter this new chapter of my life. I decided to become an executive committee member of one of the student societies, an experience I never had in secondary. Despite being a shy person, I also tried branching out and meeting new people as well as being more proactive in my clinical lab sessions. So far, I have made some amazing friends.

Yong Shiu Chun Jeraffy (2020-2021)

"Happiness is a Byproduct of a Life Well-Lived" ~Eleanor Roosevelt, said by the brave female politician in the 19th century. This wisdom always sticks in my mind. It reminds me to make the right decision for myself, one that I would be satisfied with. University is wonderful, no doubt. One of its best perks is the freedom you get -- you can design your own timetable, work at your own pace. But freedom has also become one of my greatest enemies. At university, I have learnt to be more independent but also responsible. There are indeed consequences to the decisions that I make, such as falling behind after skipping so many classes. What I have learnt the most so far is to not make decisions that I would regret, but at the same time try doing something for my own sake.

University has been absolutely incredible so far. I'm always so excited about learning and meeting new people every day, some of the happiest days of my life.

But one thing I have come to realise is how fortunate we were at SMC to have a group of some of the most hardworking and caring teachers in Hong Kong. Appreciate them, and let them help you to your fullest!

12 years was a long time; so long that I thought it'd take weeks, even months for me to get used to not going back to St. Margaret's every day. It took me some time to detach my life from the school that had witnessed my growth, and even more to get into the new swing of university. I enjoy university life very much, but sometimes, I find myself missing the comfort at St. Margaret's - where friendly and familiar faces greet me left and right, and where I won't get lost trying to find my way to class. That said, joining student organizations, living in dorms, and discovering my people in university has been amazing so far, and I have full faith that it's just going to get better. Stepping out of my comfort zone gave me a bit of a shock, but the skills I'd gained at St. Margaret's definitely geared me up for the unknown, which I'll eternally be thankful for.

I was greeted with a lot of new opportunities and challenges in my first year at university. The change of learning mode and environment were something that I had to adapt to, and it definitely felt like a big step out of my comfort zone. Luckily, I have made a lot of good friends here who have been by my side as I explore this new place. The past 2 years have been difficult but I believe that with faith and an open mind, we will get through the difficulties together. All the best to everyone in the pursuit of your goals, and I look forward to having more stories to share!

My advice for the current S6 students: study hard enough to get into your desired course, but give yourself enough time off to do what you enjoy.

For better or worse, you will be responsible for everything you do in the future. Treasure the time you have left in the school and enjoy it.

This may sound absurd but I must confess that I enjoyed the HKDSE. The school and the teachers had definitely guided me well since Day 1 so all I did was to trust them and made the decision to have fun. I gained motivation from figure skaters and pumped myself up with rock'n roll and exercises. When I gratefully look back at my time as a S6 student, I only remember the adrenaline-pumping drum beats. Dear SMCers, trust your years of growth, go face your challenges head-on, and conquer them all!

Under the pandemic, what do our teachers say?

We know life has been hard lately. Hardly anything is the same as it was two years ago. All that we can do is focus on doing the best we can every day. I've been doing the best I can to get my work done.

Vice Principal
Ms Lo Siu Yin

Our society has changed. Let's think of what we can be thankful for today. Today I'm thankful that I'm alive. I am healthy, I have a family and I have a job. My family is here, they are safe and sound and I'm doing my job well. Although I haven't met up with my friends for over a year and a half, I still connect with them online.

We are facing lots of challenges. Let's take a moment to appreciate the things that we have.

I'm just doing the best I can. What about you? I hope you can do the same.

The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted all of us in many ways. We are all living in tighter circles, and missing our routines that we used to take for granted with our friends, classmates, and our teachers. For me, some days are much more challenging than others. A Canadian poet, Shane Koyczan, has some wise words that strike a chord with me. I want to share these words with those who need them.

"There will be bad days.

Be calm. Loosen your grip, opening each palm slowly now. Let go.

Be confident. Know that now is only a moment, and that if today is as bad as it gets, understand that by tomorrow, today will have ended.

Be gracious. Accept each extended hand offered, to pull you back from the somewhere you cannot escape.

Be diligent. Scrape the gray sky clean."

Shane's insight into how we should deal with bad days is detailed in the link below. I hope you will enjoy it. One thing I know for certain is that we are stronger together.

Stay safe, be kind, and remember that this is only temporary.

"What did you accomplish today?". This is the question that I ask myself every day. Even though our routines have been shaken up amid pandemic, we can still live in the moment and make the most of it. During the class suspension period last year, apart from struggling very hard to adapt to the mode of online learning and teaching, I volunteered to deliver food and daily necessities to the people in need on weekends. Helping others indeed makes ourselves happier and healthier. Rather than complaining about how our lives are being adversely affected, let's embrace the adversity and challenges to reach greater heights.

Assistant Vice
Principal (KS I)
Ms Teresa Lam

The pandemic has had a significant impact worldwide, affecting everyone. All schools were suspended for quite a lengthy period of time and we needed to rapidly adopt and pursue remote learning using the Zoom platform. It was neither smooth nor easy at the beginning, but we eventually adapted to this new mode. Naturally, having to get used to something new is challenging and stressful, but with time, effort and perseverance, normalcy will return. Our stress index will be lowered when we get support from our family and friends. Our resilience will also be built up when we think positively. Our character will therefore become stronger as we gain from our experiences.

Adversity happens all the time but as long as we focus on learning from the experience, we will gain something we never knew we can when it is in smooth time. Besides, tough times always make us realize what the most important thing in our life is, especially during a pandemic like SARS or COVID-19. It tells us that we are helpless and limited and the most precious thing in life is always people and relationships.

The pandemic may impact all of us in many ways, however, it may also drive all of us to improve. We are all getting used to e-learning now, aren't we?

Teachers are always here to help so feel free to contact us if you face any difficulties. Last but not least, I wish that all of you can stay healthy and let's overcome the pandemic together!

在疫情下，無論是成年人還是學生都會面對很大的變化及挑戰，以往我們覺得習以為常的事，現在或許已變成不可能的任務。對學生來說，他們主要面對的困難，當然是學習。疫情初期，學生未能回校上課，只能待在家中進行網上學習，學習的進度受到影響，而對於自律性較低的同學，學習更可能停滯不前。古語云：「學如逆水行舟，不進則退。」學生在逆境下，更要懂得自律，好好規劃自己的學習，而且要善用網上資源，讓自己仍能持續學習，不斷進步。此外，學生面對新事物時，要抱持開放的態度，勇於創新。在疫情下，很多事情都不是我們可以控制的，甚至不少事情跟以往已經不同了，我們需要學懂「疫境求變」，運用新思維、新方法去克服困難，這才會讓我們覓到一條新出路。當然，我們更需要擁有一顆感恩的心，在疫情下，我們能夠處於安全的地區，擁有健康，已經是一件很幸福的事，只要大家在當下感恩自己所擁有的一切，並把這個正能量傳遞給他人，那麼，未來的每一天都會變得更美好。

We should treasure everything we have and should not take things for granted.

We should cherish people around us. Try not to argue with people for a mere bagatelle as we might regret it if they leave us one day.

We should have a positive attitude towards the current situation. Being negative doesn't help. We should try to be optimistic and seek opportunities.

At last, it is important to be yourself, to be genuine and not to be easily frustrated by criticisms.

The pandemic has impacted all of us in many ways. Many routines that we used to take for granted like enjoying a normal school day seemed so distant to us. But amidst all the hardships, I wish to remind all students that they should remain focused and embrace the changes in our lifestyle as some of these changes may become the norm in the future (e.g. Zoom / Video Conferencing).

55 the Musical

Five performances of our own original Musical - "55" were smoothly performed from 30 June 2021 to 3 July 2021 in our assembly hall with so much help and support from our students, parents, fellow teachers, alumni and non-teaching staff.

As the playwright and the director, I have to admit that this musical was by far the most difficult school project to create ever. Not only because of its scale, the number of students, teachers and parents involved, but also the ever-changing pandemic situation. It was so hard for us to plan or arrange ahead. But thank god that we had amazing teammates in the Arts Education Department; our department head Ms Ng HY, Ms Wong LY, Ms Lam YM, Ms Ng KK, our teaching assistant Sue Tsui, and our advisors (Vice Principal Ms Lo SY and Assistant Vice Principal Ms Hung ML). Together we made it through the hardship as a fantastic team. Salute to my Arts Education Department teammates.

We have received so much positive and encouraging feedback afterwards. All credit goes to each of you who walked with us. The happy faces and the satisfaction of our colleagues, parents, students, alumni and SMC are the biggest reward for us. I am certain that we have learnt a lot from this musical. I have, for sure.

Although the show has finally come to an end, the journey in our school continues. We will have so many more good years to come.

Champion for the Hong Kong Secondary School Debating Competition

Our English debate team from S4 last academic year (now S5) brought home the championship trophy in the Grand Final of the Hong Kong Secondary Schools Debating Competition 2020-2021.

The territory-wide competition is one of the largest debating competitions in Asia. Despite the limited face-to-face practice time, our debaters (S5C Chan Lok Yiu, Theng Min Xuan and Yeung King Fung) were able to progress through the competition with unceasing efforts. They reached the Grand Final and were ultimately crowned Champion in Kowloon and New Territories Division 1.

Chloe Chan:

"Debate is thought-provoking and eye-opening, taking our language skills and mentality to another level. Our team has taken on many challenges and went against formidable opponents, finally taking home the champion. I wish to thank Mr So and my teammates for their patience and determination to work through hardships together."

Michelle Theng:

"Debating is the most enriching of all extra-curricular activities I have participated in. It is very demanding but it is worth it as it has trained my presentation, analytical and research skills, all at once. Journeying through five matches and testing my limits has been very rewarding."

Gold Award in Hong Kong Budding Poets (English) Award 2020-2021

The Hong Kong Budding Poets Award is a territory-wide writing competition for all primary and secondary students in Hong Kong. It gives students an opportunity to express themselves creatively through the medium of poetry. Competition is fierce since it attracts entries from hundreds of schools, including top students from some of the most prestigious Hong Kong schools.

Chloe has studied English literature for over three years and has a deep interest in the ways that form and language can be used to explore different aspects of the human condition, particularly the issues of prejudice and injustice. In Chloe's competition poem "Street Cleaners", she uses a variety of poetic devices to evoke images of hard working street cleaners in early morning, neon-lit Hong Kong streets. Short lines and a focus on detail are used to draw attention to those who's usually unnoticed labours make our everyday lives possible.

The adjudicators were particularly impressed by Chloe's ability to capture mood and specific images through carefully chosen language and structural devices. On the award day, when the top award winners read out their poems, Chloe as a Gold Award Finalist was the last one to read her poem. It stood out for the deceptive simplicity of its form and the powerful clarity of its message.

Our Multiple Pathways to University Education 我們的升大途徑

The following is information regarding subject selection for our Senior Secondary Curriculum and multiple pathways to universities :

以下資訊有助學生在中三選科時，充分考慮踏入高中課程後可供選擇的升大途徑：

1. Applying for university admission through completion of Secondary 6 and Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education (HKDSE) 完成中六課程，並報考香港中學文憑試

- If students wish to apply for admission to any of the nine local universities, they should complete their secondary 6 education, take the HKDSE, and submit their application through JUPAS.

若學生以就讀香港九大院校為目標，則必須完成中六課程，並報考香港中學文憑試，透過大學聯合招生辦法（JUPAS）報讀香港本地大學。

- Please note that the HKDSE is an internationally-recognized examination and is accepted by most overseas universities. In recent years, our students have gained direct admission to world's top universities such as the University of Oxford and the University of Cambridge with their HKDSE results and there is no need to take other international education programmes.

香港中學文憑試備受國際認可，能為學生提供多元化的升學途徑。近年來，本校學生亦多次以傑出的中學文憑試成績，獲多間海外大學錄取，例如：牛津大學、劍橋大學等。

2. As an alternative pathway, our school currently provides the GCE curriculum (IAL) in 6 subjects: Mathematics (Compulsory), Further Mathematics (Elective), Biology (Elective), Chemistry (Elective), Physics (Elective) and Economics (Elective). Students will be required to take Mathematics and choose 3 of the above 5 electives if they decide to take the GCE Pathway instead of the HKDSE. The GCE is originated from Britain and is also recognized by universities globally.

除中學文憑試外，本校同時提供六門IAL課程（即GCE A-level）：數學、進階數學、生物、化學、物理和經濟學。除必修的數學科外，學生必須從五門選修科中選擇另外三門課程。IAL課程由英國教育機構培生設計，此考試所提供的科目更具針對性和專業性，備受國際認可。

3. IELTS (International English Language Testing System) 雅思（國際英語測驗系統）

This examination is for students who wish to obtain an extra qualification in English language to bolster their university application. This examination is held in Hong Kong frequently throughout the year and our students have always performed exceptionally well (obtaining a score of 7.5 – 8.5 on average with 9 being the highest score).

雅思是國際上認受性最高的英語水準測試之一，為準備留學或須在英語水平上考獲認可資格的學生而設。此測驗全年均設考期，本校學生平均考獲7.5-8.5分佳績（9分為滿分）。

4. HKDSE Examination (Category C subjects) : French, German, Spanish and Japanese

中學文憑試丙類語言科目：法語、德語、西班牙語及日語

Our students may also choose the above modern languages as an elective and this will be advantageous if they decide to study at overseas universities or if they opt to maximize career options. Moreover, results obtained from these subjects (known as Category C subjects in the HKDSE) will also be considered favourably by some universities (e.g. the University of Hong Kong and the Education University of Hong Kong).

本校學生可選擇上述外語作為中學文憑試的選修科，為學生到海外留學作好準備。此外，以外語作為中學文憑試的選修科（丙類語言科目）或可在某些大學的科目獲特殊考慮（例：香港大學、香港教育大學）。

5. Gifted Education 資優教育

Tailor-made learning opportunities are provided for exceptionally gifted students in collaboration with specialist training outside of school. Gifted students are well equipped for pursuing studies at world renowned universities (e.g. Oxford and Cambridge, MBBS/ IBGM in HKU/ CUHK).

本校的資優教育按學生個別的需要而設，並與外界機構合作，為具潛能的學生提供合適的資優教育，照顧學生的不同學習需要，並為資優學生的升學前程作充分準備。本校以往的資優學生成績斐然，曾獲牛津、劍橋，或港大與中大的「內外全科醫學士」和「國際商業及環球管理課程」取錄。

6. Why completing the whole secondary education in our School is highly recommended rather than finishing only a few years of secondary education and going abroad for overseas secondary education 在本校完成整個中學課程較中途退學赴外國升學的選擇更為明智

We believe that a strong foundation is essential for students' further studies at universities, especially in Mathematics and Science subjects. Moreover, there are many advantages in taking the HKDSE and applying to universities through JUPAS. For example, scholarships are more accessible at local universities while there are also ample internships / overseas exchange opportunities during the course of study.

本校深信，為學生打下穩固的學術根基為課程策劃的重中之重。尤其是在數理科目上，鞏固的數理知識有助學生在職業上擁有更廣泛的路向，完善個人的人生規劃。此外，透過大學聯合招生辦法（JUPAS）報讀香港本地大學的益處顯而易見。除了有機會獲得獎學金，更可獲著名公司實習或海外交流的難得機會，加深他們對各行各業的了解，擴闊視野。
